

***

THREE GENERATIONS OF TALENT —

Kavon Samimi, 6, had his art work featured in the school calendar at Del Rey School recently.

His father, Mehrdad Samimi, returned recently from Louisiana where he was honored at the unveiling of his portrait of Gov. Moon Landrieu. A party of more than 100 people attended the first viewing at the home of Herbert and Ann Christenberry as reported in the New Orleans Times Picayune. Samimi also did a portrait of Gov. Pete Wilson which hangs in the California State House.

His father, Kavon's grandfather, paints portraits of celebrities in Monaco.